Report of the	Gene Stuart Award
From Chair	Kate Ellenberger
Date	02/08/2023

1. Membership and terms for your committee:

So that the SAA Office's records are as complete as possible, please list your committee members and their terms here. Please also note if there are anticipated changes in a member's status before their term end date.

In order of term expiration:

Kate Ellenberger (chair) - term ends at 2023 meetings

Mackenzie Cory - term ends at 2023 meetings

Michelle Turner - incoming chair, not certain when term ends*

Amelia Dall - term ends at 2024 meetings*

Peter Bogucki - term ends at 2025 meetings

Susan Ryan - term ends at 2024 meetings

*I believe Amelia and Michelle's term ends may be confusing due to needing to fill empty spots at the last minute during 2022 cycle

2. Executive summary of Committee's/Task Force's activities over the past year:

Please note that the activities summary should not exceed 250 words. Should the committee or task force be responding to a Board request for a draft document or report, refer to it in the summary and forwarded with this form as an attachment. If no such document was requested by the Board, the executive summary should be confined to the word limit.

Over the past year, the Stuart award has once again attracted diverse and innovative articles that represent archaeology to the public. Although the vast majority of submissions still come from editors of a few publications, we have once again seen a number of submissions by authors themselves and from publications that previously had not been considered by this committee. This year's winning article was a multimedia-rich piece of journalism which focused on Indigenous voices, discussed the impact of archaeology on Indigenous people, and confronted the popular trope of Indigenous disappearance. We were able to review 17 articles this cycle. We continue to use a collaborative spreadsheet that automatically calculates average scores and allows us to see one another's detailed comments before we discuss the final winner, which has been working well for folks with different schedules.

3. Items for Board Consideration, if applicable. These are recommendations and requests that specifically require Board approval.

These items range from statements that you may wish to be disseminated, requests to undertake projects, requests to disseminate results, or any other action for which a committee or task force needs specific Board guidance/approval. Please do not embed such items in your activities summary. These items must be separately listed in this section. These are actions you are asking the Board of Directors to take. Please also include a discussion of fiscal impacts, if any, but note that budget requests occur in advance of the Fall Board meeting (and not as part of this report). Should you have questions about whether any of your Committee's items require Board approval, please consult with your Board Liaison prior to submitting your report. We also recommend that you run a draft of your report by your liaison before you “officially” submit it.

4. Draft motions, if appropriate. (Optional)

Drafting a suggested motion or motions for any requests noted above will help the Board more clearly understand your request and increase the “fit” between the request you make and corresponding Board action. Please keep in mind that suggested motions may be revised or not accepted by the Board, whose responsibility it is to consider the full range of member needs. If you choose to include suggested motion(s) with your report, it is essential that you work with your liaison before you submit your report. They will be able to provide examples of motions that you can use as models for the ones you create.

5. For Award and Scholarship Committee Chairs: Number of Applicants/Nominees and Name(s) of the Recipients(s).

applicantion/nomination package(s) to the SAA Manager, Communications and Fundraising (Emma_Sunseri@saa.org) for archiving at the National Anthropological Archive with all SAA official records.
