TRAVEL FACILITIES

New Haven is within commuting distance of New York City via the New Haven Railroad, which offers almost hourly service during the day, with travel time averaging about 100 minutes. Airplane service into New Haven is poor; into Hartford, Conn. it is better; but the greatest flexibility may be obtained by flying to New York City and taking the train to New Haven. Those landing at La Guardia Airport will save time by taking a taxi directly to the 125th Street Station of the New Haven Railroad.
REGISTRATION

It is requested that everyone attending the meetings register upon arrival. Registration will be conducted in the lobby of the Hotel Taft on Wednesday afternoon and evening (May 4) and all day Friday (May 6); outside the Law School auditorium on Thursday morning (May 5); and in the hall of the Peabody Museum Laboratories the rest of the time. The registration fee is $2.00. For information and messages, inquire at the registration desk, or consult the bulletin board near the desk.

On Friday noon and for breakfasts and dinners, it will be more convenient to eat at the Hotel Taft or in downtown restaurants.
